

EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS
IEEE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON CLUSTER COMPUTING

IEEE CLUSTER 2001

SUTTON PLACE HOTEL,
DEAUVILLE SOUTH HALL,
NEWPORT BEACH, CALIFORNIA

<http://www.cacr.caltech.edu/cluster2001/>

CONFERENCE: OCTOBER 8 - 11, 2001

EXHIBITS: OCTOBER 9 - 10, 2001

The rapid emergence of Commodity Cluster Computing as a major strategy for delivering high performance to technical and commercial applications is driven by the superior cost effectiveness and flexibility achievable through integrated ensembles of PCs. Cluster computing, such as Beowulf class systems and SMP clusters, is redefining the manner in which parallel and distributed computing is being accomplished today, and is the focus of important research in hardware, software, and application development.

IEEE CLUSTER 2001 is the major forum this year to share research results and announce new developments by academic, industrial, and government contributors. The previous conference held in Chemnitz, Germany, attracted hundreds of participants from all over the world. CLUSTER 2001 merges five popular professional meetings, including the IWCC, PC-NOW, CCC, JPC4, and the German CC series into a single comprehensive international conference. CLUSTER 2001 will be held in the beautiful Pacific coastal city of Newport Beach in Southern California. One of the exciting evening events planned is a banquet on the Queen Mary in nearby Long Beach. Visit the CLUSTER 2001 web site for additional program, hotel, travel, and registration information.

TUTORIAL/SESSION TOPICS

Tutorials will be held on Monday October 8th.

Topics will include:

- Scyld Process Management
- PVFS
- MPI-2
- Infiniband
- Highly Available Clusters
- Multi-cluster Grid Computing

The Symposia, will be held Tuesday–Thursday, October 9-11, addressing:

- Networking
- I/O
- Middleware
- Cluster Management
- Alternative Hardware
- Scheduling
- Algorithms, Applications and
- Programming Models.

TOPICS OF INTEREST

- Hardware Technology for Clustering
- High-speed System Interconnects
- Light-weight Communication Protocols
- Fast Message Passing Libraries
- Single-system Image Services
- File Systems and Distributed RAID
- Cluster Security and Reliability
- Cluster Job and Resource Management
- Data Distribution and Load Balancing
- Tools for Managing Clusters
- Middleware, Groupware, and Infoware
- High-Availability Cluster Solutions
- Scientific and E-commerce Applications
- Performance and Benchmarking
- Clusters of Clusters and Grids
- Novel Cluster Systems Architectures
- Network-based Distributed Computing
- Mobile Agents and Java for Clusters
- Software Environments for Clusters
- Clusters for Bioinformatics.

INSTALLATION AND DISMANTLING PROCEDURES FOR EXHIBITORS

General

- The exhibition will be held in the Deauville South Hall of The Sutton Place Hotel. By the time you arrive, your booth location will be marked.
- To streamline the attendee flow in the exhibition hall, demonstration chairs will allocate booth locations.
- Please ship your items to the following address:

The Sutton Place Hotel
4500 Mac Arthur Boulevard
Newport Beach, CA 92660 USA
Attn: Christina Casad (949) 955-5629
IEEE Cluster 2001 Oct 8-Oct 11
Deauville South Hall

- If your items are shipped early in advance, all the material will be at your booth location by the time you arrive for installation. Items should not arrive before Oct 6, 2001.
- Exhibitor hall hours 10:30 - 7:00pm. Exhibit Hall will be closed to all persons during off hours.
- Executive Exhibitors will get two 6-ft. tables, and Premium Exhibitors will get one 6-ft. table. Power for all the booths will be provided free of charge by the conference. Please specify special power requirements on the attached form. You can bring your own display backdrop, and those that chose the Executive Exhibitor package may bring full size booth displays for a 10'x10' area. Those that will be bringing large banners to be hung in the booths, please be sure to make a note of this on the registration form. Other materials for displays must be provided by the Exhibitors.
- In addition, Executive Exhibitors and Premium Exhibitors will get one free registration for the conference. This free registration includes conference admission and a single copy of the conference proceedings. Please fill the attached form for early registration. The deadline for early exhibitor registration is September 7, 2001. Please make every effort to meet the registration deadline with your list.
- As done in the past, IEEE will provide insurance coverage all the hardware brought in by exhibitors. Please take advantage of this free coverage by filling out the attached form with detailed information about your specific hardware. These forms must be provided by September 21, 2001.
- All the exhibitors will be able to attend the Wine and Cheese Reception on Wednesday night, at The Sutton Place Hotel. As done in the previous years, the Exhibition Hall will be open during the Wine and Cheese Reception.
- Security personnel will ask every person removing material from the exhibit hall to show a "Property Removal Pass". Blank Property Removal Passes can be obtained from the Registration Desk.

Installation

- Cluster 2001 Exhibitors will have Monday October 08, 2001, all day for installation.
- Normal installation hours are from 9AM – 11:59PM.
- During normal installation hours, stickers and badges (for those who registered early) will be available to all exhibitors to gain access to the exhibit hall.
- Exhibitors may pick up stickers and badges at the registration desk.
- Stickers must be worn at all times during the installation.
- The hotel will provide a storage room to store all the empty boxes and other items. Please have labels available to mark your empty boxes.

Dismantling

- Dismantle begins at close of exhibition on Wednesday, October 10 at 7PM. No displays can be removed prior to 7PM. All exhibits must be removed by 11:59PM on the same day since the conference has to release that room for a hotel function early the next morning. If you need any help, please contact one of Exhibitor Chairs.
- For further information, please contact the exhibitor co-chairs:
